MAJOR INFORMATION

Your submitted application is for consideration for the specified semester only. Should you not be able to be considered for the specified semester, you may make a one-time request to move your application to a future semester, without submitting a new application and paying a new application fee. The request to move an application must be made to the Graduate Admissions Office prior to the start of the original expected semester of matriculation. Before requesting such a move, contact the academic department to determine if they accept applications for the anticipated new semester.
